MEDICAL PROGRAM ASSISTANT VACANCIES

University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health is currently seeking energetic, well-organized individuals to fill current and future Medical Program Assistant vacancies. We offer an annual starting salary between $25,000 and $29,000, plus an excellent benefits package. These vacancies are both full and part-time with some flexible schedules. Medical Program Assistants provide support to a physician's practice or clinic, a family practice clinic, or a hospital/clinic. Duties vary by position. For further details please go to: https://wiscjobs.state.wi.us/public/job_view.asp?annoid=23096&jobid=22611.

HOW TO APPLY:

You must first take and pass the Medical Program Assistant Exam to apply for a MPA, MPA Associate, or MPA Senior position. The MPA Exam is a multiple choice exam which must be taken at one of our test centers. Contact Alexandra Svoma, School of Medicine and Public Health Human Resources, at aesvoma@wisc.edu (preferred) or (608) 263-4935 for information about future exam dates, times, and locations.
