November 7-8, 2013 / Monona Terrace Convention Center / 1 John Nolan Drive, Madison, WI

10th Anniversary

BCERP 2013

Annual Meeting

Inspiration for the BCERP Program, research accomplishments, and opportunities

Join us for exciting scientific presentations and networking with breast cancer researchers, clinicians, and community partners

- Keynote Address
  Ken Olden, PhD, Former Director, National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences (NIEHS) and Founding Dean, School of Public Health at the City University of New York

- BCERP Accomplishments
  Leslie Reinlib, PhD, Program Director, NIEHS
  Neeraja Sathymoorthy, PhD, Program Director, National Cancer Institute

- Current Projects: Progress and Challenges
  Gail Greenburg, RN, MSN, BCERP Community Outreach and Translation
  Susan Teitelbaum, PhD, Associate Professor, Mount Sinai School of Medicine

- Interagency Breast Cancer and Environmental Research Coordinating Committee Report (IBCERCC)
  Congressionally-mandated report on the status of federal breast cancer research efforts, key knowledge gaps, and strategies for accelerating progress
  Gwen Collman, PhD, Director, NIEHS Division of Extramural Research
  Deborah Winn, PhD, Deputy Director, National Cancer Institute Division of Cancer Control and Population Sciences

- Future Directions in Breast Cancer and the Environment Research
  Call to action for advancing breast cancer prevention
  Linda Birnbaum, PhD, Director, NIEHS and National Toxicology Program
  Marc Hurlbert, PhD, Executive Director, Avon Foundation for Women
  Marion Kavanaugh-Lynch, PhD, Director, California Breast Cancer Research Program

FREE REGISTRATION! National BCERP: www.bcerp.org